

DUSTON PARISH COUNCIL MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

The Members' Code of Conduct is intended to promote high standards of behaviour amongst Councillors and Co-opted Members of the Council.

The Code is underpinned by the following seven Nolan principles of public life, which should be borne in mind when interpreting the meaning of the Code. Councillors and Co-opted Members should behave with:

- i. Selflessness – and act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not act in order to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their family or their friends.
- ii. Integrity – and should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.
- iii. Objectivity – in carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits; choices should be made on merit.
- iv. Accountability – and are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
- v. Openness – and should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- vi. Honesty – and declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
- vii. Leadership – and should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.
